Attention Ndugu Sam Rwakojjo,

RE: CHANGE OF PARTY NAME

cp 26-6-2019

Greetings to you Sir and happy new year.

Early last year the party convened its delegates' conference and all minutes and resolutions were forwarded to the Electoral Commission for filing as is a requirement of the Law.

However, to our disappointment the commission did not react on any of our resolutions, so the status quo of the party remained the same.

We had sought to change from the current name to:
The independents National Unity Party however this was not honoured by EC.

We seriously need to shorten the name so that our members can easily pronounce it.

However, on the 22nd February 2019, the party held its extra ordinary meeting and made the following resolutions; see attachments.
